

To Camillus,

With regards to the shed that built it was built with the intentions of running a personal training business out of. Four mornings a week I'm in there at 6am to 7am but the majority of my work gets done from the hours of 9am to 6.30pm Monday to Friday. I'm only in the shed when I have people booked in with music going, but I don't have music going loudly outside of the hours stated to me on Friday.

I'm here to provide a service for the community and I choose to run it from home as it fits in with our family life to run a business from home. My clients prefer to be in a comfortable environment and that's what I am all about.

Thank you
