

After giving due consideration to the points listed above, the Finance Manager will place the investment with the institution that returns the largest yield to the Council.